

FOURTH YEAR B.N.Y.S. DEGREE EXAM

PAPER VII – MINOR SURGERY, FIRST AID & EMERGENCY MEDICINE

Q.P. Code : 821529

Time: Three hours

Maximum : 100 Marks

Answer All questions

I. Long Essay:

2 x 15 = 30

1. A pan chewing patient suffered from blood vomiting & loss of conscious. How do you diagnose this condition & manage it?
2. Explain in detail about the general principles & clinical management of fracture & dislocation

II. Short Notes:

10 x 5 = 50

1. How will you manage warfare injuries?
2. Write the complication of blood transfusion
3. Write the etiology, investigation & management of acute respiratory failure?
4. Explain replantation with few examples
5. Write the differential diagnosis of acute myocardial infarction
6. How will you prepare the patient for anaesthesia?
7. Write the types, etiology, clinical & surgical management of cerebrovascular catastrophes?
8. Crush injuries & its management
9. General signs & symptoms & initial management of poisoning
10. Sports related injuries & their management

III. Short Answers:

10 x 2 = 20

1. Name the suture methods
2. Application method of spica bandage
3. How will you measure fluid loss during surgery?
4. Difference between insulin shock & diabetic coma
5. First aid for methyl alcohol poisoning
6. Write the signs & symptoms for the three phase of acute renal failure?
7. First aid for frost bite
8. Clinical significance of CNS in hypothermia
9. Diet for reactive hypoglycaemia
10. Advance life support for cardiac arrest
