

British Council's Education UK exhibition 2015 Chennai - You are invited!

There will be a networking reception organised by British Council on Friday, 6 February 2015 at hotel Le Royal Meridien, GST Road, Guindy from 7.30 pm onwards. This networking reception will be useful as you will be able to network with more than 60 UK university representatives. You will also get an opportunity to interact and network with British Council staff and other key institutional contacts from schools and colleges in Chennai. The programme details are given below in the invitation.

Mei-kwei Barker
Director, British Council South India and Bharat Joshi
British Deputy High Commissioner

request the pleasure of your company for a networking reception on Friday 6 February 2015 from 1930 hours

Venue Grand Madras Ballroom Le Royal Meridien, Chennai	RSVP: Mirrin Raikhan Tel: 044 42050662 Email: mirrin.raikhan@in.britishcouncil.org
---	---

Programme

1930 hours: Welcome address to guests and Introductions by Mei-kwei Barker (Director, British Council South India)
1935 hours: Speech by Bharat Joshi (Deputy High Commissioner, Chennai)
1940 hours: Speech by Andrew Soper (Minister Counsellor (Political & Press), British High Commission, New Delhi)
1950 hours: Speech by UK alumnus
2000 hours: Networking reception with drinks and dinner
2130 hours: Close

On Saturday, 7 February 2015, organising the annual Education UK exhibition for aspiring students who wish to go to the UK for their higher education. The exhibition will be held at Hotel Le Royal Meridien, Chennai from 2.00-7.00 pm. It will provide an excellent opportunity for students to get first-hand information on studying and living in the UK. They will get to know what courses the universities offer and scholarship details as well. It will be a one stop shop for students enabling them to have a face to face interaction with UK delegates from over 60 UK Institutions.

Seminars on Student visas, MBA or MSc – which is better, Biotechnology, IELTS, IT and Engineering courses will be held simultaneously. Entry to this exhibition is free!